Friday 26th April 2024 - Issue 27

A Message from Mr. Lane...

The school year continues to pass with such momentum and I struggle to believe that next week signals the start of May! A reminder to all of you that on Thursday next week, school will be closed due to local elections but then open as usual on Friday (3rd May). On the afternoon of that day, we have made plans to carry out an announced lockdown drill at school. We have set procedures for different alerts at Oak Meadow and by practising these we build awareness and confidence in responses. My first priority is, and always will be, to keep every child (and adult) at Oak Meadow safe. Please have my assurance that all children will be spoken to by their teacher with full explanations for what is happening both before and during the drill which will last a short time. The aim will be to show children how we stay safe within the school building. Any questions at all, please feel free to speak with me. Take care everyone and enjoy a lovely weekend.
